Getting it right the first time (GIRFT) – a concept to optimise the bladder cancer pathway

17 May 2023

19:00 – 20:00 CEST (18:00 – 19:00 GMT)

Learning objectives

In this webinar you will:

- Improve your knowledge and understanding of the GIRFT concept (Getting it right first time).
- Learn how GIRFT can be implemented in practice within your specialist units.
- Increase your knowledge of the nurse specialist in the urological pathway and a review of Scandinavian cancer packages.

After this webinar we hope participants will be motivated employing recommendations for developing world class bladder cancer services.
