

The EAUN Ronny Pieters Award Nomination

This award, made at the discretion of the EAUN Board, is named after Ronny Pieters [Ghent, Belgium] who was the catalyst and instrumental driving force behind the organisation of the first meeting for European Nurses working in Urology and the establishing of the EAUN. Through the award, the EAUN seeks to recognise and celebrate dedication and innovation in broad areas associated with urological nursing practice, research, administration or any other area of significance to urological nursing that is worthy of recognition. This form allows EAUN members to nominate someone who, in their opinion, has a record of providing a consistent and outstanding record of commitment and contribution to the development of urological nursing.
